Intro: (open chords no distortion)
Dâ€"Aâ€"E7

Verse 1: (same as intro)
D   A   E7
Well, space is cold. Itâ€™s so fuckinâ€™ lonely
And though Iâ€™m bold. Iâ€™m pretty fuckinâ€™ homely
I got a heavy load. Itâ€™s fuckinâ€™ overwhelming
And I may explode. This motherfucking ship Iâ€™m helming

Chorus 1:
G   Bsus2   A
I had a rough day at work
And my back really hurts
The crew donâ€™t take me seriously they just look at me and smirk
Iâ€™ll just go back to my quarters and jerk my Kirk

Verse 2:
D   A   E7
You pass me in the corridors
You never ever notice me lurking
Iâ€™m spending all my time alone
Nobody knows how hard Iâ€™m working it
I wanna take a voyage home
â€˜Cause right now Iâ€™m going berserk and
The places where my fantasies roam
Have got my blood burning

Chorus 2:
G   Bsus2   A
I had a rough day at work
And my back really hurts
Iâ€™m gonna quit star fleet and be a motherfuckinâ€™ file clerk
Or just go back to my quarters and jerk my Kirk

Verse 3: (distortion on, switch to bar chords and palm mute)
E-------B-------C-------B------- (x2)

E                       B                   C                           B
All by myself in my own private hell my quarters are a dungeon and my mind is a cell
Where I'm locked up tight alone every night losing the battle of a Pon farr fight
And I can't get control I'm never ever done I can't let go of my own number one
But I try, God I try! If I could just stop and re-supply
But I know I'm never gonna stop jerking my Kirk 'til the day I drop
And I know nothing works I'm always gonna have to jerk my Kirk

::Repeat Chorus 2::

Outro: (repeat through end solo)

```
D           A           E7
```
I'm gonna jerk my Kirk! (he's gonna jerk his Kirk)

End on slow down-strum of Bsus2
