Home is friendly space
Home is a familiar face inside the door
All curled up on the bedroom floor.
Home is where I find the bed
some place to lead my head to morning comes singing here comes the sun .

Bb C#
Does it matter where I go or what I do
I can't lie you know it's true
It ain't home without you.

Some people spend there days
Lost in a heartless haze out in the cold if I may be so bold
That life is not for me 'cause every day I see a better way
And I can surely say.

Chorus:
Does it matter how many days come by
Or how many times feel and touch the sky
Does it matter where I go or what I do
It ain't home without you.

C# Bb

It aint home, oh you know
That Im lost all alone
It aint home
Home is friendly space
Home is a familiar face inside the door
All curled up on the bedroom floor.
Home is where I find the bed
some place to lead my head to morning comes singing here comes the sun .

Chorus:
Does it matter how many days come by
Or how many times feel and touch the sky
Does it matter where I go or what I do
It ain't home without you.

Submitted by T.J. Cronin , this album is awesome by the way... look up Always Within Me by Winger... You'll love it ;)
