Home is friendly space
Home is a familiar face inside the door
All curled up on the bedroom floor.
Home is where I find the bed
some place to lead my head to morning comes singing here comes the sun .

Bb C#

Does it matter where I go or what I do I canâ \in TMt lie you know itâ \in TMs true It ainâ \in TMt home without you.

Some people spend there days

Lost in a heartless haze out in the cold if I may be so bold

That life is not for me â€~cause every day I see a better way

And I can surely say.

Chorus:

Does it matter how many days come by Or how many times feel and touch the sky Does it matter where I go or what I do It ain't home without you.

C# Bb

It aint home, oh you know
That Im lost all alone
It aint home
Home is friendly space
Home is a familiar face inside the door
All curled up on the bedroom floor.
Home is where I find the bed
some place to lead my head to morning comes singing here comes the sun .

Chorus:

Does it matter how many days come by Or how many times feel and touch the sky Does it matter where I go or what I do It ain't home without you.

Submitted by T.J. Cronin , this album is awsome by the way... look up Always Within Me by Winger... Youl 1 love it ;)
