I tabbed this tuned to half-step down Lyrics may be slightly off but someone ought to start tabbing more from this brilliant man.

A C#m
Worrierâ€™s feast you ate the awful stuff D F#m
ate the heart full of cake and crust C#m Bm
you can taste red in the earth
A
red in the air E
red all around
a worrierâ€™s feast worry and wait make the best mistakes use your hands to bind use your fists to break you can make hurts on your arm hurts on your face hurts deep inside a worrierâ€™s feast

F#m Bm
oh youâ€™ve been running D A
lost your way C#m F#m Bm
take my arm you can show me where youâ€™ve been
weâ€™ll go back trough where youâ€™ve been
there with the mountain D A C#m hid on high deep down low F#m Bm D youâ€™ve been some place safe wandererâ€™s fast

spit amazing grace clear your lungs sing till blood comes out you can gasp hearts in the breath hearts in the bone hearts all that last a wanderer's fast oh you've been running

lost your way
take my arm you can show me where you've been we'll walk back through where you've been but if you keep on running ill run too and catch your worriers hand well go someplace wide someplace fierce red your hands and paint your warrior face stain the water clear with warrior paint
