 BELLE OF THE BALL *****

performed by Waylon Jennings.

Verse 1:

C# F# C#
A vagabond dreamer, a rhymer and singer of songs
F# C#
Singing to no one and nowhere to really belong
F# C#
I met a beautiful lady, a pure Southern belle of the ball
F# G#
Like Scarlet O Hara loved no one and wanted them all

Chorus:

C# F# C#
I ll never forget you and love you inspite of your faults
F# C#
The good and the bad I want to remember it all
F# C#
I did a new dance and you did your Tennessee Waltz
F#
The party s all over I came uninvited
C# G# F#
I m leaving and taking the belle of the ball

Verse 1:

C# F# C#
There will always be someone I guess that s the way it should be
F# C#
I guess i should know that someone used to be me
F# C#
They ll gather around her soon they ll all look the same
F# G#
At the feet of the lady are lover s without any names

Chorus.
