 BLACK ROSE *****

written by Billy Joe Shaver performed by Waylon Jennings.

Capo on the 3rd fret.

Verse 1:

E A
Way down in Virginia
 E B
Amongst the tall grown sugar canes
 E A
Lived a simple man and a domineering hen
 B E
And a rose of a different name

Verse 2:

E A
The first time i fell lightly
 E B
I was standing in the drizzling rain
 E A
With a trembling hand and a bottle of gin
 B E
And a rose of a different name

Chorus:

E A
The devil made me do it the first time
 E B
The second time i done it on my own
 E A
Lord put a handle on a simple handed man
 B E
And help me leave that black rose alone
