Verse 1: C/G G She was a good looking woman no doubt C/G A high steppin mover that men talk about But everything bad in me She brought it out C/G And she was just no good for me Verse 2: G She was wonderfully wicked and wild With the looks of a woman C/G And the ways of a child She could twist me or turn me With a look or a smile C/G And she was just no good for me Chorus: Don t be taken by the look in her eyes If she looks like an angel It s a perfect disguise

But she was just no good for me

Verse 3:

G

I ${\tt m}$ just a fool for a looker i guess

When it comes to beauty

C/G

Lord knows she was blessed

I thought i could change her

G

And i did my best

C/G

But she was just no good for me

Chorus.
