 OMAHA *****

written by Billy Joe Shaver and Hillman Hall

performed by Waylon Jennings.

Capo on the 2nd fret.

Chorus:

G A D G A D G
Omaha you ve been weighing heavy on my mind
A D
I guess i never really left at all
G A D G
I m turning all those roads i ve walked around the other way
A D
And coming back to you,Omaha

Verse 1:

G A D G
Omaha,Nebraska wasn t good enough for me
A D
I always thought i was the roamin kind
G A D G
With a pocket full of dreams and my one shirt on my back
A
I left there looking for some things to find

Verse 2:

G A D G
Rode my thumb to San Francisco,i worked down by the bay
A D
Got some schoolin paid for by the law
G A D G
The hardest thing i learned was there ain t no easy way
A
To get ahead behind those county walls

Verse 3:

So it s so long California,i reckon i ll be moving on
I m leaving even if i had to crawl
I got some loose ends around that i left undone
Waiting there for me in Omaha

Chorus.
