Verse 1: D G The highway she s a hotter than nine times the hell Α D The rides are as scarce as the rain G When your down to your last shuck with nothing to sell D And too far away from the train Verse 2: D G Been a good month of Sunday s and a guitar ago Α D Had a tall drink of yesterday s wine G Left a long string of friends, some sheets in the wind D Α And some satisfied woman behind Chorus: D G Hey ride me down easy Lord, ride me on down Α D Leave word in the dust where i lay G Say i m easy come, easy go Α D Easy to love when i stay

Verse 3: D
G
G
I ve put snow on the mountain, raised hell on the hill
A
D
I locked horns with the devil himself
G
Been a rodeo fool, a son of a gun
A
And a hobo with stars in his crown

Chorus.

D G Ride me down easy Lord,ride me on down
