Verse 1: When i first saw New York city I was green down to the core You could see my red neck glowing For a mile or maybe more Between the hustlers and the hookers I must have made their day Cause they peeled me like an apple, Lawd And sent me on my way Bridge 1: When you re pushed and shoved and almost mugged It ain t no place to be So i came to one conclusion New York ain t for me Chorus:

And coast to coast Somewhere in the middle

Is the land i love the most

I ain t California pretty

I can t survive the Great White Way

I m too dumb for New York city

And too ugly for L.A.

Verse 2:

I made my way to Tinseltown

To Hollywood and Vine

Out among those pretty faces

I d surely find a place for mine

The way i walk-the way i talk

They ll hang on every word

But don t call me,i ll call you

Was all i ever heard

Bridge 2:

In L.A. what they re thinking

Ain t what they talk about

At least in New York city

There s never any doubt

Chorus.

I m too dumb for New York city

And too ugly for L.A.
