***** WORKING WITHOUT A NET *****

written by Don Cook,Gary Nicholson and John Jarvis performed by Waylon Jennings.

Verse 1:

A
Well the road can be a circus,a death defying act
E
But the clowns don t come around no more since the monkeys off my back
A
I stand here on the stage,as the house lights fade to black
E A
Your love helps me forget,i m working without a net

Chorus:

A D A
Up on the high wire,i hear the crowd begin to call
D E
Some want you to fly,some want to see you fall
A
Now and then i stumble,but i ain t fallen yet
E A
Your love helps me forget,i m working without a net

Verse 2:

A
I used to depend on some things i did not need
E
I leaned on some crutches that kept me off my feet

Standing here without them now,well it scares me half to death
E A
Your love helps me forget,i m working without a net

Chorus(x2).
