Class band. Easy song basically

The song revolves around 3 simple chords:

E: 012200

It goes like this:

Intro:

E, A (listen to Keith's strumming and play accordingly)

Verse 1:

E A
I'm not calming down.

E A
What's this all about?

E A E A
All I know is I don't need this tone you're taking.

E A
Forget what I said.

E A
For every promise kept

E A E A
There's a thousand I don't even know I'm making.

Chorus 1:

B A E
So it's time to stop being so impatient.

B A E
It's time to stop being so impatient.

Verse 2: (same chords as previous verse)

Your philosophy is totally lost on me.

With a promise I don't mean to have you waiting.

That attitude won't do any good when the problem's only as you, as you've made it.

Chorus 2: (same chords as previous chorus)

So it s time to stop being so impatient.
It s time to stop being so impatient.

Bridge: (quietly)

A E A
Why not try to take it down?

A E A
You re gonna have to wait this out
(gradually louder strumming)

E A
Or tell me now

A
Where the fuckin fire is.

(play E and A like in the intro for a bit)
