

Lucky Ones

We Are The Ocean

Bm G A

all of the way through.

One day we, we will be on top of the world
I can't wait I can't wait forever
One day we, we will be on top of the world
I can try I can try
But when will this end

Get up get up (woah)
I need something to shout about
Wake up wake up (woah)
I just need it I just need it now
Come on come on (woah)
Give me something to believe
Get up get up (woah)
I just need it I just need it now

And now I find my self walking down the Same road as before
I've got this feeling
I've felt it before
And now I'm starting to loose my mind
And now I'm starting to loose my mind
And now I'm starting to loose my mind

Get up get up (woah)
I need something to shout about
Wake up wake up (woah)
I just need it I just need it now
Come on come on (woah)
Give me something to believe
Get up get up (woah)
I just need it I just need it now

And this is all we've ever known
Will we make it out alive?
Now that our hands are warn
We've been holding on for so long
People tell me to let go, let go
But it feels so right

Get up get up (woah)
I need something to shout about
Wake up wake up (woah)

I just need it I just need it now

And give me something to believe
(Get up get up woah)
I just need it, I just need it

Get up get up (woah)
I need something to shout about
Wake up wake up (woah)
I just need it I just need it now
Come on come on (woah)
Give me something to believe
Get up get up (woah)
I just need it I just need it now
