```
Step In Step Out
Weddings Parties Anything
[Intro]
G G D/F# A x2
[Verse]
G
            D
                            Α
                                       D
   In the morning, when from slumber you awake
                                    A
G
              D
                             F#m
   You find me sleeping like a baby by your side
                D
   G
Get up, get out to work
                Α
                                 D
cause there are cakes that must be baked
             G
                                р
But if there s things that I must do
           F#m
I d sooner let them slide
[Chorus]
                     Bm
            Bm
               Α
                                Α
And you step out, when I step in
      G
                    D
It is a dance that is bizarre
       Α
                           D
It is a dance that s wearing thin
           Bm A
                          Bm
                                Α
And you step in, and I step out
                          D
       G
We can t find the time for talking
                F#m
                      G D/F# A
        Α
Seems we find the time to shout
G G D/F# A
[Verse]
G
             D
                               Α
                                              D
  And late at night when I come fumbling for my keys
G
              D
                             F#m A
  The house is dark and all is quiet
G
         D
                       Α
                                      D
  Get into bed, it is so hard for me to please you-
                     D
                                       F#m
      G
                                            A
Barely hours away from work and you re so tired
[Chorus]
            Bm
                           Bm
                                Α
                 Α
And you step out, when I step in
       G
                    D
```

It is a dance that is bizarre D Α It is a dance that s wearing thin Bm A Bm Α And you step in, and I step out G D We can t find the time for talking F#m G D/F# A Α Seems we find the time to shout G D/F# A x3 G [Bridge] G D Some people pray for rain Α D Some people pray for holidays G F#m D Α Some people pray for money without swelter G D But we just prayed for two shifts Α D At the same end of the day F#m G D Α And a life that is not quite so helter-skelter [Chorus] Bm A Bm Α And you step out, when I step in G D It is a dance that is bizarre Δ D It is a dance that s wearing thin Bm A Bm Α And you step in, and I step out G D We can t find the time for talking F#m G D/F# A Α Seems we find the time to shout G D/F# A G You and me, oh we ve been living in different worlds G D/F# A G You and me, oh we ve been living in different worlds G D/F# A G You and me, oh we ve been living in different worlds

GDADGD Bm