official lyrics

Open the gate to the red land Alcan road, by the turquoise lake Starry skies, a mushroom cloud Folding waves-in a foamy tide Washing in beds-of opal shells white gulls cry-for you and I butterflies-float away drift over pools-of salt and clay mountain man--frosted child eagles cry-puppets of god strung like time-molded in form trees bend back-and trails distort the turquoise lake-and starry skies mushroom clouds--folding waves foamy tides-of salt and brine
