

What Deaner Was Talking About Ween

Here s a great song by Ween and it is pretty easy to play. The chords are all open and you play them sought of appoggio on the treble strings. The effect they use I think is a Wah pedal but you don t really need it. I ll just give you the chords to it and you can just fiddle around with them.

[Verse 1]

G D
The wash is out its hanging up
 C G
And all I have is nothing
 ../w
Nothing to do nothing to say
 C G
I think I must be dreaming

[Chorus]

Em G
The sun comes up and I m all washed out
 Em A
Is this what the Deaner was talking about
 G D C G
I don t think I ll ever return again my friend

[Verse 2] (same chords as verse 1:)

If I was king I d wear a ring
And never hurt my people
I d stay alert and dress to kill
I might even slip you something

[Chorus]

Em G
The sun comes up and I m all washed out
 Em A
Is this what the Deaner was talking about
 G D C G
I don t think I ll ever return again my friend

[Solo] G D C G C G Em G EM A G C D C G

[Chorus]

Em G
The sun comes up and I m all washed out
 Em A
Is this what the Deaner was talking about
 G D C G
I don t think I ll ever return again my friend
 G D C G

I don t think I ll ever return again my friend
