verso

Em                               Am
when i m stable long enough
      D                               G   (F#m)
i start to look around for love
Em                               Am
see a sweet in floral print
      D                               G
my mind begins the arrangement
Em (começa um riff de fundo mas n tirei)                               Am but when i start to feel that pull D                               G
turns out I just pulled myself
Em                               Am
she would never go with me
      D                               G
were i the last girl on earth

Refrão

G   Bm           C           G
i m dumb she s a lesbian
      C           G           D
i thought i had found the one Em           Bm           C           G
we were good as married in my mind
      C           G           D
but married in my mind s no good
