

Thought I Knew
Weezer

-----
THOUGHT I KNEW - Weezer
-----

Tabbed by: Nick (ilovemyepi)

This is off of Weezer's new self-titled album (aka The Red Album). It wasn't accepted i first submitted it for no reason i think, as it should be fully mostly correct, but i'm it again, this time with the lyrics added.

(EDIT: note about the bridge: In the Video where Weezer is playing Thought I Knew live the studio, you can see Brian Bell play some sort of chord around the 4th fret of the E

I've checked if it's a G# but it sounds kind of off. If anyone knows what this chord please tell me. I know the bass is playing an E in the song but Brian is playing different).

Here s the lyrics:

sorry about my past life i m sorry but we just missed sorry it had to end up like this sorry about the pain sorry i forgot your name sorry but you left me out there in the rain thought i knew you better then thought i knew your intentions thought i knew but didn t have a clue not a single damn thing was true sorry about the harm sorry i m no good luck charm sorry you didn t end up in my arms

thought i knew your intentions
thought i knew but didn t have a clue

now that our worlds gone dark we ve drained the well blew out the spark now we re left with broken hearts trying to find a new place to start

thought i knew you better then
thought i knew your intentions

not a single damn thing -

thought i knew your intentions
