

Jackson Park Express
Weird Al Yankovic

D C
Tuesday morning, 8:15

D
I was riding to work on the

G F
Jackson Park Express

D C
Seemed like any other day

D
Then my whole world changed

G F A
In a way I never could have guessed

G
Cause she walked in, oh oh oh oh oh

A C G
Took the seat right across the aisle

A G
I knew we had a special connection

A C
The second I saw her smile

G A
She smiled as if to say

D A/C# Bm
Hello, Haven t seen you on this bus before

G A
I gave her a look that said

D A/C# Bm Bm7 Em
Huh, Life is funny, you never know what s in store

G A
By the way, your hair is beautiful

C D

I bet it smells like raisins

G C D

She looked at me in a way that asked

Bm

Did you have a nose job or something?

C G C G C Bb

I m only asking, cause your nose looks slightly better

A

Than the rest of your face

Am G F

I arched my eyebrow, ever so slightly

A G A

Which was my way of asking

D D/C D/B D/A G

Do you want my old Hewlett-Packard printer?

G F

It still works, Kinda

D D/C D/B D/A G E

And I got a bunch of ink cartridges left

A D A

Then, she let out a long sigh

G A

Which, I took to mean, Uh

D G A

Mama, What is that deodorant you re wearing?

It s intoxicating

D G E F#

Why don t we drive out to the country sometime?

G A G G/F# G/E D

And collect deer ticks in a zip-lock baggie , Oh yeah

F# F#7

Bm G D

I gave her a penetrating stare

F#

Which could only mean

D G D G D
You are my answer, my answer to everything

F C
Which is why, I ll probably do very poorly

G D
On the written part of my driver s test

C G A D

D
Yes, It all happened

C G D
On the Jackson Park Express

C G D
On the Jackson Park Express

C G D
On the Jackson Park Express

C G D
On the Jackson Park Express

D C D

A G
I knew she was starting to fall for me

A D
Cause she crinkled her nose, which unmistakably meant

D C Bb
Baby, lets wear each other s clothes

And speak in a fake German accent

Bb F C Dm
And, maybe someday we can own and operate

Dm Bb C F A
Our own mobile pet-grooming service

Dm Bb
I couldn t hold back my feelings

F C Dm
I gave her a look that said

D# Bb F
I would make any sacrifice for your love

F
Goat, chicken, whatever

D# Bb F
I could never hold you close enough

F D# Bb
Let s have our bodies surgically grafted together

F
Oh, surgically grafted together

F# G# Fm Bbm
She picked up her newspaper, and started reading to herself

B F# G#
Which I m sure, was a way of telling me

C# B
When you re cold, I will warm you

C# B
When you re shivering, I will hold you

C# B F#
When you?re nauseous, I will give you Pepto-Bismol every hour

F# E
For as long as the symptoms persist

C G D B
Oh, I, I never, ever want to see you cry

Em C G D C
So, please let me cauterize your tear ducts with an arc welder

G D A F#
Then, I glanced down, at her shirt, for a second

Bm G D
In a way that clearly implied

A G D
I like your boobs?

C G A D

D
Yes, It all happened

C G D

On the Jackson Park Express

D C D

F G Em Am
I cleared my throat quietly, and then, I looked away

Bb F C
And I m sure it was obvious to her, just what I was trying to say

D#
I was trying to say, Hey

Bb F C D#
I d like to make a wall-sized mural out of all the dead skin cells

Bb F
That you slough off while you sleep at night

D# Bb F
Whoa-o-Oh, I d like to rip you wide open

F C D# Bb F
And french-kiss every single one of your internal organs

D# Bb F
Oh, I d like to remove all your skin, and wear your skin, over my own skin

D# Bb F
But not in a creepy way

G# D# Bb F
Then, I m pretty sure, she looked at me, out of the corner of her good eye

G# D# F Bb
And, though, she never spoke a word, this is exactly what I heard

D#
She was saying, Oh!

G# C# G#
I wanna make out with you, in an abandoned toll-booth,

C# G# D#

In the middle of a monsoon

G# C# G#

I wanna ride dolphins with you, in the moonlight

C# G# D#

Until the staff at Sea World kicks us out

G# C# G# D#

I want you inside me, oh, like a tapeworm

E A B G#

I pointed to the side of my mouth, as a way of indicating

A E B

Hey, I think you got something on the side of your mouth

G# C#m C#m/B A

She licked the corner of her lips, as if to say

E/G# B/A E

Here? , I nodded, implying, Yeah, you got it

A E B G# C#m

And, then the bus stopped, at 53rd Street, and she got up suddenly

A E B

Where are you going?? pleaded my eyes,

G# C#m

Baby, don t you do this to me

C G D C

Think of the beautiful children we could have someday

G D Em

We could school them at home, Raise them up the right way

F C

And protect them from the evils of the world

B7 Em C G

Like Trigonometry and Prime Numbers, oh oh no

D G

Baby, please don t go

Am C Am

She brushed my leg, as she left the bus

Am

I m sure that was her way of saying

G G7 C
I m sorry this just isn t working out

D
You re suffocating me

G G7 C D
I need some space to find out what life s all about

Em F G
So, goodbye forever,(ahah) my love

G D A
And deep inside, I knew she was right

G D A
It was time for us both to move on

C G D
And though, I never got her number, oh no no

C G D
She never bothered to leave her address, oh

C G A
But, as long as I live, I ll never forget

D
Those precious moments we shared together
