Wannabe Gangster Wheatus

Song: Wannabe Gangster

Artist: Wheatus Album: Wheatus

Tabbed by: fivestringbass

I think the actual recording uses barre chords but you can use open chords if you want to.

Verse 1:

E C# C E C# C

I am a wannabe you better be careful around me,

E C# C E C#

I come from far away where mustang dreams are made,

C E C# C

And we are fashioned in the image of the dons who have come before us,

E C# C

We all kiss the rings of sand like our fathers told us.

Chorus:

E B A

Cause I m a wannabe gangster better go back to commack,

E B A

I m a wannabe gangster better go back to commack,

E B A

I m a wannabe gangster better go back to commack,

C B

Better go back to far away.

Verse 2:

Like a lemon pie a la mode my nine is easy to load,

All hail jericho turn pike teck that s where I go,

To learn the things about the universe I ll need,

So I can build a stampede,

Cause I m all up in your face again all up in your face.

Chorus

Interlude: (same chords as verses)

A wannabe gangster a victim of the chromosome prankster,

I thanks ya I sits back in my chair to comtemplate my hair (ooh damn I reak of cologne),

But yo I m looking snappy I m nappy I m crappy,

Got Jimmy hats from pappy so now I m trigger happy,

(Girl did he just rhyme crappy with happy) yeah,

So you girlies wanna get with this nit wit got cheese whiz or not,

Then I m a hafta blow up ya mail box biatch,

Or toilet paper ya front yard show the cops my suburbs card,

They gotta let me go cause they know that I m hard, It s the deal for real,
Ya better listen to what I m telling ya,
Cause I m a wannabe gangster.

Chorus

And that s it, it s a pretty easy song to learn.
