Whiskeytown
Drank Like a River

Intro A G D A ( x2 )

[A]He was nearly died, when he re[G]turned to the town where he d [D]come from [A]He s brown baggin it tonight, be[G]hind some [D]tavern
[A]Somebody wrecked his life, and I bet [G]you it was his [D]darlin
[A]Somebody wrecked his life, and I bet [G]you it was his [D]darlin

[D]So he drank like a [A]river when their [G]wedding bells rang
[D]Watched from the [A]steeple as the [G]choir girls sang
[D]Died in the [A]gutter on his [G]feet and his hands
Same [D]hands that [A]once touched her [D]face

A G D A ( x2 )

[A]He was nearly died, when he re[G]turned to the town he d [D]come from [A]He s hanging out drinking beer with [G]his brother in-[D]law
[A]He was a drinker at night, in the [G]morning he was un[D]nerving
[A]He was a drinker both times of [G]day when he lost his [D]darlin

[D]So he drank like a [A]river when their [G]wedding bells rang
[D]Watched from the [A]steeple as the [G]choir girls sang
[D]Died in the [A]gutter on his [G]feet and his hands
Same [D]hands that [A]once touched her [D]face

[D]So he drank like a [A]river when their [G]wedding bells rang
[D]Watched from the [A]steeple as the [G]choir girls sang
[D]Died in the [A]gutter on his [G]feet and his hands
Same [D]hands that [A]once touched her [D]face
