

Fatalist Palmistry

Why?

Stanard Tuning.

Im pretty sure there are the right chords for the song and the chords are pretty simple.

is A without putting your 3rd finger down on the B string - A can be subistuted in this but i think it sounds better with Asus2)

Enjoy.

G

this same sky that held

Bm

the exhale from your first breath

like a ring on a pillow of clouds

Bm

G

but my gift heart screams clear and swells

Bm

to burst between the wrapped lengths

of its bowed ribbon cell

[Chords are essentially the same from here on..]

but i am still alive in love and wide eyed in my time not a mummy shinking in its cloths there s a moth flock in my gut growing a tug at my groin like tides trying to pull moon towards them, i can t ignore them and when we say your name our tongues catch flame and you wonder why we ain t got nothing to say but your painted pony is fading lost like a snakeskin in high grass and out there thrashing like a pet bird caught in a jet stream, that s me you count them blessings cause your net worth oughta be less cream in your best dreams but god put a song on my palm that you can t read

i ll be embalmed with it long before you ll see
