

Entering A Black Hole Backwards Widespread Panic

Basically a Dave-driven instrumental, this little ditty is typically played as in introduction to Chilly Water. It was originally known as the Chilly Water Intro. jam to most folks. Some mistake it for the rare Astronomy Domine Jam, but these two songs are very different. The tune was named by fellow Spreadnetter Leon Leathers, and was chosen by Dave Schools himself after looking through a list of names submitted by Spreadnetters.

Most chords are strummed with a triplet feel. I used the word chocolate (mmmm... chocolate) and slash marks to show how the triplets match up with the beats of each measure.
