One of my favourite songs off of A Ghost is Born, which is a great album that you should go out and get, if you don't already own it. I am rather disappointed though at the lack of any guitar notation at all for many of the songs.

Well, it's very easy. Improvise in E minor pentatonic until the obvious chord progression.

It goes:

E D C#m B

More improvisation....

E D C#m B

Through the entire song, feel free to hit the bass notes of the chords.

You can easily figure out the rest of the song from that basic formula. helluva a great song to jam to. I mean, come on, it's ten minutes long.
