Most download versions of this song that I ve heard are slightly sped up from the format, so your guitar may sound out of tune while playing along... I d say its about a $1/16 \, \mathrm{th}$ higher than it should be.

INTRO: C# G# C#

VERSE 1

C# F# C#

I ll be thinking of you pal at sunset time

F# C#

Thinking of the happy days gone by

G# C#

There beneath those dear old western skies

Eb G#-F#-F#/D-Eb-C#

And I ll tell you just the reason why,

CHORUS

C# F# C#

There s a love knot in my lariat,

G# C#

And it s waiting for a blue eyed gal you bet,

F#

While I m riding the range all day

C# Eb G#-F#-F#/D-Eb-C#

My old lasso seems to say, it twines around an ornery stray,

C# F# C#

There s a love knot in my lariat

G# C#

And it s waiting for my little prairie pet

r# Ci

When I swing me old lasso you hear me â€~yodelayheehoo'

C# G# C#

There s a love knot in my lariat.

VERSE 2

C# F# C#

I'll be thinking of you pal at roundup time

F# C#

when $\hat{\operatorname{Ia}}\in^{\operatorname{TM}}m$ riding cross the great divide G#

every time I swing my lariat

Eb G#-F#-F#/D-Eb-C#

takes me back to someone I just cant forget.
