```
King Of Grey
Will Hoge
```

Capo on the 2nd fret

VERSE 1

G D/F# Em C

Wake in the morning Lord I m drunken with the dawn.

G D/F# Em

Waiting on a train that I know runs no more just outside of

C

Baltimore.

D/F#

Or Chicago well I just don t know

Em (

Everyday it s harder when you spend your time alone

G D/F#

Then there s no one ever there to say hello

Cm.

When the sweet morning sun does come.

And it always seems to come

CHORUS

D G C

One day I will rise

3 C

High above it all

G (

She will catch me if I fall

Am D

And I know I will always be the King of Grey

VERSE 2

Sweet promises of springtime turn the brown lies of early fall

Orbiting around a love that I once called my own

Never have I felt so small

And maybe it s the wintertime come to make me feel so cold

But there is just a slight chance that this pain comes from watching smiles fade away

They fade away

CHORUS 2

D G C

One day I will rise

G C

High above it all
G C
She will catch me if I fall
Am D
And I will live today
G C G C
And I will watch her dancing in the sun
G C
My whole world s come undone
Am D C
And I know I will always be the King of Grey.
SOLO AND OUTRO
G D/F# Em C
-7-3
33- -3
BRIDGE
G D/F#
Bring me summertime and take away this pain of mine.
Em C
This emptiness is far too much won t somebody please come pick me up
This emperiess is far too mater wor t somebody prease come pron me ap
CHORUS 2
play Solo/Outro again.

High above it all