And tonight after eight, that s when I ve got a date;

The Girl In The Little Green Hat.

E B E B
Thereâ€™s no water in the lake, thereâ€™s no roof upon the house;

No trees-es in the park at all;
 G D G D
But I ll wait beside the lake, I ll be welcome at the house;
 G D G
I ll meet her by the garden wall.

C G C G
There s a ship on the lake, There s a sailor on the shore;
 C F G Am
There s a girl in his arms, she s the girl I adore;
 Dm F C G
So goodbye to the house by the lake in the park;
 F G C
And the Girl In The Little Green Hat.

As the ship starts to dip, she is losing her grip;

Every dip makes her tip, not the girl, but the ship;

But the girl on the ship has the pip from the trip;

The Girl In The Little Green Hat.

E B E B
She s been sailing quite enough, she s been clinging to the rails;

E B E
She s dying to be home once more;

G D G D
Cause the lake is rather rough, And the girl is rather pale;

G D G
She s glad to get her feet on shore.

C G C G
Ah, she gave up the ship, And the captain and his men

C F G Am
For a round ticket trip to my arms once again;

Dm F C G
Now I m back in the park at the house by the lake;

Cheers, and good luck.
