

When Push Comes To Love
William Elliott Whitmore

Bm            A            G
Well Go, Go where you may
Bm    A            G
Do do what you will
Bm            A            G            D
I ll see you again on a sunnier day
Bm            A            G
I know I ll love you still
D    G        D        G        D
And I can t seem to understand
D                    G                    D
But you got my heart in your hands
D                    A                    D
Well you got my heart in your hands

Intro again

Bm            A            G
The dawns early light
Bm            A            G
is now faded to grey
Bm                    A                    G                    D
the ashes from the fire we had last night
Bm    A    G
all blown away
D        G        D            G        D
And I can t seem to understand
D                    G                    D
But you got my heart in your hands
D                    A                    D
Well you got my heart in your hands

Bm                    A                    G
Well youre rainstorm a fire and a trainwreck
Bm                    A                    G
all wrapped up in ribbons and lace
Bm                    A                    G                    D
youre a fistful of roadside flowers and rain
Bm                    A                    G
Just a soul in a dime store vase
D    G        D        G        D
And I can t seem to understand
D                    G                    D
But you got my heart in your hands
D                    A                    D
Well you got my heart in your hands
D                    G                    D

Well you got my heart in your hands

D                      A                      D

Well you got my heart in your hands
