William Fitzsimmons - So This Is Goodbye

Capo on the 5th fret: D A E

The thing never now, were you
You re gone and I won t see you anymore
You left my love on the run
And said that you were leaving
And you won t come home again
And you won t come home again

And I ll miss you like you re dead
I never got to grieve you
Cause I saw you
In the arms of someone new

So your phantom follows me
Like a child would his mother
Or a lover who never said goodbye
so this is goodbye

And I cry myself to sleep
And you thought I was happy
I was lonely
Had nowhere to go

And I heard that you moved on Found a brand new family
And changed your married name
And everything has changed

And I ll miss you like you re dead
find a way to grieve you Cause I need to Try and start again

And your ghost will have to leave
Like a child would his mother
Or a lover
Who has to say goodbye and so this is goodbye
so this is goodbye
so this is goodbye
so this is goodbye
so this is goodbye
