William Ryan Key

Does anybody see beyond the trees

Does anybody get across the sea

I was traveling to where I can't recall

I can't get back to you now

When everybody filled me up with pride

I am no statue a monument to raise

C G C

But I try my best these days

[Chorus]

Em C G

Funny how time doesn't mind

E C G

Who we keep and who we bare to leave behind

So into this great unknown

I will wander on my own

[Verse]

Will I ever stop imagining

What if I've done things differently

And will you find it a corner in your heart

For me long after we part

Long after we part
