

The Bowery

William Ryan Key

[Intro]

(Single Strum)

E B G#m A

(Fingerpicking Begins)

E B E A

[Verse]

E

I don t shine like the others do

B E

I m so close, and so far

A

From the light you see them standing in

E B

I ll come running if you tell me to

B E

Upstate, I m too late

A

And the Turnpike s choking up again

[Chorus]

C#m B

Who do I think I am

A E

Rushing in where I can t win

F#

And I am always

C#m B

Crumbling beneath this

A E

Heavy weight, much to say

F#m E

Is this way always

E B E A

[Verse 2]

E

Take me down to the bowery

B E

Break bread, you said

A E

I m a loyal one, I m a lot of fun

E

Find a garden and will burn it down

C#m B E

Someday I ll say

A

F#

I was wrong to feel so overcome

A B C#m E F#

[Verse 3]

F# A

This is all dimensional

E B C#m E

Its alternate, appropriate

F# A

Maybe it s a ritual

B C#m E F#

A sacrifice, a drink on ice

A

I am unconventional

E C#m E

And with this truth I come to you

C#m E A

With this truth I come to you

[Chorus]

C#m B

Who do I think I am

E

Rushing in where I can t win

F#m

And I am always

C#m B

Crumbling beneath this

E

Heavy weight, much to say

F#m E

Is this way always

[Outro]

C#m B E A

I m so close, and so far
