

Vagabond Moon
Willie Nile

Vagabond moon (Willie Nile, 1980, album omonimo; © 1978 Lake victoria music, Ascap)

according to my singing capo on 2nd fret (original version capo 1st fret, chords A D E)

Umberto " Siena, Italy sweetsfamily@alice.it

Intro

G (let it sound) C G D

G C G
Ride to my window baby, come in the morning
G D G
under the covers maybe we can play
G C G
the nasty old reaper don t give you no warning
G D G
ride to my window baby, come by today

Ride to my window baby, come in the evening the afternoon sun is going down soon why be waiting there, hiding and grieving when we could be rolling neath the vagabond moon

chorus

C G C G
It glows and thrills as it rides in the hills
C G D
and rolls throu the dregs of the night
C G C G
it shines and beams down the back alley streams
C G D
and it fills a poor heart with delight

Ride to my window baby come in the daytime my arm and my blankets would keep you so warm the cold wind is blowing babe, and this is the right time to take us some shelter from the upcoming storm

Ride thru my window babe and I ll ride thru yours we should be singing such a merry old tune open you shutters babe, I ll open my doors and we can go howling neath the vagabond moon

chorus

Ride to my window babe, come after midnight

no one in my street is awake or alive we can pass time here kiss in the monlight what a fine thing to make love and survive

chorus