If you are going go
If you are staying stay
Id rather feel something than nothing at all
Through the fire and smoke
The rackage and the ropes
And the indifference and dreams going nowhere

Nothings as heavy as an empty heart
Nothings as heavy as an empty heart
Nothings as heavy as an empty heart

D E E
And if you leave me nothing at all Ill just say

If you are going go
If you are gonna stay, just stay

Through the fire and smoke
The rackage and the ropes
And the indifference and dreams going nowhere
