Well I ve been working on becoming what I am

In this bus-terminal bathroom

And these days I dream like I live of trash! And scammed Grayhound passes

Why don t I take a shower you wonder

I(?) guess what I can t smell, I JUST CAN T REMEMBER!!

So I m doing my best to smell just like this basement forever

Forever

Well isn t hitchiking dead they all ask

Not as long as I m still broke and breathing

And if they don t cut this thumb off my dead fist well then I m on this on ramp for eternity

There ain t nothing like singing your heart out to nobody as you fall asleep by the side of the road you know I never felt quite as free or quite as alone

or quite as alone
