

Big Coat
Wiretree

I heard this band/song on the radio and liked it. I thought I would like to submit my interpretation of the song. I'm sure it is not totally correct but it plays well along with the song. Embellish/Correct if you can!

- Mark -

Intro:

F#m    A    D    C#m    E

F#m    A    D    C#m    E

Verse 1:

F#m
Hide in a place you know that no one ever goes
A
Keep in a sack in which it always stays closed
D
I need a knack for keeping out of trouble
C#m                                  E
You know how it can go

Verse 2:

F#m
I don't know what I'm like but everybody says
A
You're not the kind that gets out of your head
D
I keep talking all these crazy clumsy words
C#m                                  E
And I know that I've been heard

Instrumental:

D            E            F#m            E
D            E            B            D            E            F#m ...

Verse 3:

F#m

Everybody s talking about the situation

A

You know they all have a lot to learn

D

Always digging up some information

C#m

E

You get what you deserve

Verse 4:

F#m

Now i have some shoes and a big coat

A

Have a car and a nice girl too

D

Drive around and get my blood flowin

C#m

E

Keepin it in for a later tune

Instrumental:

D

E

F#m

E

D

E

B

D

E

Ending Oh s

F#m

A

D

E

(x6)

End on F#m