E G F# x2

```

E           G       F#           E       G F#
Taking to the cloudy skies again,
E           G       F#           E       G F#
The city lights shimmer on the plane.
B
In his eyes he sees the sadness,
B                               G

```

For his love will always be the same.

Bm            A                    E
She was standing in the rain.

Bm                    A            E
She waits in vain for you.

Bm            A                    E
She was standing in the rain.

Bm                    A                            E
She knows her love will pull her through.
