

Cornflake

Withered Hand

This man deserves some recognition for his great lyrics and simply folk styling.

If you have ever wanted to play his songs but not figured it out it s because he loves his capo. Play all chords as open and keep the strumming loose and bouncy.

The Chord pattern is the same for every verse.

<http://witheredhand.com/>

Capo 4th

G A D G

So I broke another of the ten commandments

G A D

John Harvey Kellog doesn t want me for a sunbeam

G A D G

Won t you wear your sacreligeous undergah-arments

G A D

And we ll make out like we are seventeen

Won t you tell me just exactly what do my dreams mean

Because I think I saw your face before we met

And I m living with the legacy of teenage LSD

So tell me that you love me or I ll forget

Now standing here for a lack of moral fibre

I get by with just enough and that s ok

I d do anything to get my dick inside her

But that s not what she wants to hear me say

Now John Harvey Kellog doesn t want me for a sunbeam

I d say people get together when we are all alone

So send me an instant message if you know what this shit means

Cos I m no longer answering the phone

Saying John Harvey Kellog doesn t want me for a sunbeam

You can teach yourself the miracles at home

Now I got a selfish case of being in a real bad place

Will someone help me roll away this stone

G A D

Will someone help me roll away this stone