Checkpoint Charlie

VERSE 1

A D A F#m

I had a dream I was in New Orleans

E D A

Maybe it was heaven

AD AF#m

All I know I wasn t lonesome anymore

E D A

And the saints were marching in

VERSE 2

Then I met a man chiseled from stone Shared my table at the square Maybe it was Jesus, maybe Iggy Pop We smoked my last cigarette

CHORUS 1

A DA F#m

What does it matter heaven or the latter

E D A

"I ll pay the tab― said the Nazarene

A DA F#m

We can take all you ve got good times or not

E D A

With Iggy and Jesus in New Orleans

VERSE 3

It was daybreak way out on the levee Iggy is playing washtub in three-quarter time Down by the river I heard some clawhammer banjo Me and Jesus went fishing

CHORUS 2

What does it matter the Bayou or El Paso $\hat{a}\in \mathbb{C}$ Il pay the tab $\hat{a}\in \bullet$ said the Nazarene High as a fruit bat in Napa Valley With Iggy and Jesus in New Orleans

VERSE 4

Was it purgatory, was it Checkpoint Charlie s I decided I was staying forever That ol morning sun maybe it was voodoo I woke up to the whistling southbound train
