

Confidence Man
Woodbox Gang

Band: Woodbox Gang (www.woodboxgang.com)
Album: Wormwood

A great band from southern Illinois playing Trashcan Americana

Verse 1

Got a pretty smile, I can smile too. Smile so big my headâ€™s in two.
You wanna be friends, you can be mine. Keep you happy in the sunshine.
Take my hand, itâ€™s warm you can tell. Feel my heart, itâ€™s hotter than hell
Iâ€™ve been there and I can take you too, I can make all your bad dreams come true.

(Slide Licks in G)

D Em C (5 times) end on D

VERSE 2

I like small towns and the people there. Easier money than welfare.
What does it take to get a handout? A sucker to trust you without a doubt.
But they need me and I need them, weâ€™re all red-blooded working men.
Good or bad, where do I stand? Between the devil and a dollar is a confidence man.

CHORUS

Itâ€™s a confidence game, Iâ€™m a confidence man. Sure as I win, sure as I stand.
Tell you what I am, honest I ainâ€™t. Stab you in the back, smiling like a saint.
Confidence man in a confidence game, Iâ€™ll leave you with nothing but your shame.
Your mama warned about a confidence game, sheâ€™s been taken in just the same by a confidence man.

VERSE 3

When the market dies like it always does everybody's pockets are lighter than they was.

Evrybody's mad everybody's pissed They can't believe that they were taken by a scam like this Still they can't even understand, how they got swindled by an ordinary man They pay the price, that's why I came, to make 'em all losers in a confidence game.

CHORUS

SLIDE LICKS IN G

D Em C (5 Times) end on D

The guitar solo is done on a dobro/resonator guitar, tuned to open G.
