Am C Am

VERSE 2

A clown was found where he drowned
So bloated they noted he nearly exploded
The hour was powered by flowers and cowards
With souls full of holes and spirits corroded
I watched the fitness of the mystery mistress
Who cried all night with warm hugs and kisses
Till her half sister kissed her and hitched her
To the wheels of the god box wagon

His face was simple with dimples and pimples

But he slept with his boots on the stove
The story that morning said the rain was pouring
And far into nowhere he drove
Then nowhere stopped and he dropped his clock
Standing there was an ox a wagon and a box
So he grabbed the reins in the rain and proclaimed
I'm the god of nowhere and I'm never going home

CHORUS

The god box wagon doesn't care where your money is God box wagon doesn't care who your daddy is All the god box wagon really wants to know Are you going somewhere where you wanna go?
