

Italian Plumber Lawsuit
Woodbox Gang

VERSE:

B E
I ve been watching the news to see what new excuse
F# B
they have for young people, committing violent acts.
Now they ve hit on the truth, its because of all the E F# B
meanness in the youth and the devils lawyer couldn t even argue the facts.

I ve got a friend its such a shame,
he spends his time with the video games
F# B
staring at colored glass, all day
And the plan floats in his brain,
the poor boy s gone half insane
F# B
and i aim, to make the perpetrators pay.

CHORUS

F# B
He spits fire, and eats flowers
E F#
he kicks turtles, and he stomps mushrooms
E F# B E
i am gonna sue, Mario and his Brother Luigi
B F# B
I will make those bastards pay for what they ve done.
E F# B E
My blood curdles when i think of those poor turtles
B F# B
and the mushrooms who never grew into hallucinogens.

VERSE:

Well his room is like a shrine to his partners in crime,
there s those strategy books piled up like the Babylon tower.
and he swears on the blood of King Koopa,
he ll destroy all those dog-gone goombas,
his minds so strung out on that flower power.

CHORUS

He spits fire, and eats flowers
he kicks turtles, and he stomps mushrooms

i am gonna sue, Mario and his brother Luigi
I will make those bastards pay for what they ve done.
My blood curdles when i think of those poor turtles
and the mushrooms who never grew into hallucinogens.

VERSE

Well theres all kinds of video games,
that are leading this world to shame,
and i for one, im not gonna take it
well Ive got a friend who thinks he s Qbert,
and one whos gone wild over frogger,
and this one he ll only play ms pac-man naked.
but Im mostly concerned about that Italian plumber,
his princess, and his good for nothin brother,
their existence in this world is a disease.
But will i do anything about it?
I doubt it,
I guess we dont need another war with the Japanese!

CHORUS

He spits fire, and eats flowers
he kicks turtles, and he stomps mushrooms
i am gonna sue, Mario and his Brother Luigi
I will make those bastards pay for what they ve done.
My blood curdles when i think of those poor turtles
and the mushrooms who never grew into hallucinogens.

This is a fun little song from a Southern Illinois band with a bluegrass/rockabilly sound to it. You can find the song itself on YouTube.

WE ARE ALL ZOMBIES, CREATURES OF HABIT AND ROUTINE. THE ONLY DIFFERECNE IS WE ARE NOT
