Oh Woman

VERSE 1

E G#
Youâ€™re a woman thatâ€™s what you say

A B
I say you work in mysterious ways

F#m B
Iâ€™m on my knees every other day

A E

VERSE 2

I was born with shoes and a long sleeve shirt
Straight into the barn where the hoof prints hurt
But I was twelve years old before I said a dirty word
Oh Woman

VERSE 3

I drink my coffee straight from the tap
No cream no sugar I take it black
No bread no wine he can have it back
Oh Woman

VERSE 4

I was dreaming about the time I caught a nasty influenza
My head was hot and melting causing mass hallucinations
There were people on the ceiling screaming â€œLead in wrong directionsâ€•
Oh Woman

VERSE 5

Youâ€™re a woman thatâ€™s what you say
I say you work in mysterious ways
I scream your name in vain they say
Oh Woman

VERSE 6

I was born with boots and a half hidden tail
With a sprout of mistletoe peaking through the scales
I was 21 before I spent the Sabbath in jail
Oh Woman

VERSE 7

I drink my Koolaid down like poison
Raise my glass to all the other children
With his blood weâ€™ll meet our mothers in heaven
Oh Woman

VERSE 8

I was killing every brain cell with a cleaner for the kitchen
In the hopes Iâ€™d be too blind to see the depth of my depression
Somebody saved my life posed as a kitchen cleaner salesman
Oh Woman

VERSE 9

Youâ€™re a woman thatâ€™s what you say
I say you work in mysterious ways
One look at you and Iâ€™ve turned gray
Oh Woman

VERSE 10

I was born with cleats and a pocketknife
I traded my cleats for a secondhand wife
I traded true love for eternal life
Oh Woman

VERSE 11

I drink my whiskey straight from the source
It blows my brain and it rips my voice
But Iâ€™d drown in that river if I had the choice
Oh Woman

VERSE 12

I was killing every brain cell with a paper bag addiction
The vapors of adhesion take away my dark condition
I danced across the ceiling without shame or inhibition
Oh Woman
