Sardine

VERSE 1

Em C G

Sardine you're all that I got

Em C G

And youâ \in mre not very much to look at 3

Well I see you sitting there with that glassy stare

Em C G

So twisted and grimy and crooked

VERSE 2

Sardine I know you got backbone You ain't afraid to show me Oh but I can't find you're heart when you fall apart Are you nothing but skinny and bony

Chorus

C D G

Oh but you taste so much like a woman

C D G

But that just means that you are the real thing

C D G C

Itâ€™s as though you sleep where the passion runs deep

Em C G

And deeper is where the sweetest things cling

VERSE 3

You sleep so close like flies on paper With your sisters and your brothers And I look into your eyes like big blackberry pies And I chew you up just like all the others

VERSE 4

And my breath will carry you all night
And linger on until tomorrow
Oh until I scrape you out of the cracks of my mouth
And hope that you're children will follow
