Wooden Wand and the Sky High Band

D G D
The director cast himself as the little girl
G D
and wrote in the part of Anne for his Elijah
G D
and Peter the beggar played Paul the man-handler
A G D
Oh, the joy he felt in choking them villagers out

A G D
Waiting for you, I gave myself a dream
A G D
Of dogs in the house of God
A G D
And the vampires demand preparation
A G D
And the gypsies lie down in the mud
A G D
And a baby was born from thin air
A G D
And a baby was born from thin air

bridge:

G D
They needed someone to fill the role of the lightswitch taper
G D
And the caterer was gracious and anxious to play the part
G D
One doctor, two doctors, one prince
A G D
Oh, the money they spent just sorting these simple things out

A G D
Waiting for you, I gave myself a dream
A G D
With tarps replacing the dogs
A G D
And the mechanical bull was given life
A G D
And the gypsies lie down in the mud
A G D
And a baby was born from thin air
A G D
And a baby was born from thin air
