

Train 45

Woody Guthrie

Train 45 - Woodie Guthrie

Intro: G#m, Eb, G#m, C#m, G#m, Eb, G#m, Eb, G#m

G#m

The train I ride on is a hundred couches long,

Eb

you can hear the whistle blow a hundred miles.

G#m

C#m

If that train runs right, Ill be home tomorrow night,

G#m

Eb

G#m

cause I m nine hundred miles from my home

Eb

G#m

and I hate to hear that lonesome whistle blow.

G#m, Eb, G#m, C#m, G#m, Eb, G#m, Eb, G#m

G#m

Walkin down the track I got tears in my eyes,

Eb

tryin ta read a letter from my home.

G#m

C#m

If that train runs right I ll be home tomorrow night,

G#m

Eb

G#m

cause I m nine hundred miles from my home

Eb

G#m

and I hate to hear that lonesome whistle blow.

G#m, Eb, G#m, C#m, G#m, Eb, G#m, Eb, G#m

Well there you go, that s the basic chord pattern for train 45. You may have to listen it a few times to get the hang of it. I ll put up the solo soon.