

Chemical Dependence
Wrinkle Neck Mules

Chemical Dependence

D
Spiritual desperation and chemical dependence

G D
Itâ€™s been a long, long road

D
Rasterâ€™s and vectors keep switching
G

Iâ€™m sitting here wishing this paper will burn D

C G D

D
Today was the first day I havenâ€™t been thirsty

G D
In two days and three months before

D
Learning to speak it, but they canâ€™t make me believe it

G D
Iâ€™ve a use for these words

Chorus:

A D
And I donâ€™t like to go out on the weekend

G D
Those Baptists got nothing on me

A D
Send my regards to your boyfriend

G A
You know just where you can find me

Spiritual desperation and chemical dependence

Itâ€™s been a long, long road

One day Iâ€™ll be leaving, you better believe

Iâ€™ll go running like hell through that door

Because I canâ€™t wait to go out on the weekend

Those Baptists going to see me in church

Say your goodbyes to your boyfriend

Or heâ€™s entering a new world of hurt
