Lyrics

I hope we stay
Thick as thieves, butter and bread
Pillars of colonial homes
And I wish I could shout you out
False start
Donâ€™t get your cane caught in the cracks
Buckle your seatbelts, polluting the airwaves
Single and lonely

And you said you are
Unconsolable
And you said you are
And you said you are Unconsolable
Unconsolable

Come up to my house
Drink with my friends
You can lay on my couch
Achin to start all over again
We going back to your room
But wait a minute its my room
And was it something I said
Was it something I said

Come up to my house
Drink with my friends
You can lay on my couch
Achin to start all over again
We going back to your room
But wait a minute its my room
Throwing up on my bed
And was it something I said

I hope we stay
Thick as thieves, butter and bread
Pillars of colonial homes
And I wish I could shout you out
False start
Donâ€™t get your cane caught in the cracks
Buckle your seat belts, polluting the airwaves
Single and lonely

And you said you are
Unsolable
And you said you are
And you said you are
