Xavier Rudd

LOVE COMES AND GOES
XAVIER RUDD
KOONYUM SUN

Not the exact way that xav plays it as he does it on a slide but works well for an easy
sing along.

C G
Love comes and goes
Am F
Sometimes decades, sometimes months.
C G
Raise you up to the sky
Am F
Make you feel like every little thing is bright.
C G
Send you crashing back down
Am F
Make you so sick that you want to drown.
C G F C
No other pain, like losing a soul mate.

C F G C
The roads we take in life often seem to be very strong.
C F G C
Walk them carelessly like we re walking on bricks and stone.
Am F G C
Only when we look behind we will see the road is cracked,
C F G C
Oh, there we must move forward, gently as we tread.

(Chorus)

C F G C
To carry our guilt sometimes seems the only thing that s easy;
C F G C
Eat away your flesh and bones and all that you be.
Am F G C
My good amigo once said that the truth will set you free,
C F G C
But I guess we have to wait sometimes, just wait around and see.

(Chorus )

Am F G C
I see a new sun rising again!
Am F G C

Brand new colors, brand new road ahead!

Am                      F                      G                      C

Sweeping up the pieces of A broken nest,

C                      F                      G                      C

Sweeping up the pieces, but the pieces never end.

(Chorus)

No other pain, like losing a soul mate
