G

Do you remember when we ran through the blizzard

Bm A

From the train station

D G
The snow in New York covered up half of the door

Bm A
Yet we still would brave it

D G
All we could do was sit and practice our tunes

Bm A
And maybe watch an episode of lost

D G
We slept on the blow up mattress and talked about how lucky we were

Bm A
To be here

D G
You helped me through the door

Bm A G
And we stayed there since I could remember

(D G Bm A x2)

D G Bm A G
I watched the city from the window on the train

D G
You can't sit still for anything

Bm A G
Oh it's our stop so it won't matter anyway

D G
It was early December when a call from our leader

Bm A
Established our new assignment

D G
And we ran and we tried to make it work without our selves feeling mixed up

Bm A
I couldn't write anymore

D G
So we packed up all our things and headed north for the spring

Bm A
I was finally seeing you for once

D G
The tour finally started we had our friends and our guitars

Bm A
Ready to take on the unknowing world

D G
You helped me through the door

Bm A G
And we stayed there since I could remember

D G
We knew that there was so much more

Bm A G
This is life yeah this is what we've waited for

D G Bm A G
I watched the city from the window on the train

D G
You can't sit still for anything
