[Notes]

I ve seen quite a few versions of this floating around out there, but none of them quite right. Feel free to comment on any mistakes you see, but this sounds really close. G7 chord during the bridge may be off by a trivial note or two, but everything else good. The whole song sounds best plucked, not strummed. I could have gone into more with the arpeggiated chords that start at the bridge, but I think this suffices. Great song, enjoy! dniete97@hotmail.com
